

MORTON & HANTHORPE PARISH COUNCIL
INTERNAL AUDITOR'S REPORT
AUDIT YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2021

I have completed the annual independent audit of Morton & Hanthorpe Parish Council's affairs for the financial year ended 31 March 2021.

Appropriate account books have been properly kept throughout the year on an income and expenditure basis. The cash book is regularly balanced.

The Council has adopted a very comprehensive set of Standing Orders, together with stringent Financial Regulations, which are adhered to at all times. These are reviewed and amended as necessary and also reviewed annually.

The budget is well prepared, actual expenditure against budget is regularly reported to the Council, and reserves appear to be adequate. The Clerk's expenses are recorded with supporting receipts and are claimed back quarterly as approved by the Council.

Minutes are well kept, brief, to the point, and there is a good audit trail.

Risk assessment is being monitored continually and regular safety checks are being carried out at both the Cemetery and the Playing Field. Cemetery records are well maintained. There is a comprehensive plan of Grave Spaces, and money collected in fees is banked promptly.

I have checked the Statement of Accounts against the figures in the accounting record, bank statements, invoices and minute book before completing Page 4 of the Audit Return. In my opinion the listed control objectives are being met.

As a result of my examination of every aspect of the Council's affairs, I do not believe that there are any matters which should cause concern.
